Nigeria Institute of Public Relations

WHAT IT IS AND WHAT IT DOES

Established in 1963, The Nigerian Institute of Public Relations (NIPR), the professional body of qualified Public Relations Practitioners, attained charter status in 1990 with Decree 16 (now Act of the National Assembly).

The Law mandates NIPR to regulate the practice and direct the development of Public Relations as a profession in Nigeria. The law also makes it illegal to practice Public Relations, under any title, in Nigeria without NIPR certification.

GOVERNANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

As the centre of policy initiatives, NIPR's 22member Governing Council which is elected every two years, directs the affairs of the Institute. Sitting as an electoral college, the Council elects the President and the Vice President of the Institute who respectively serve as its Chairman and Vice Chairman. Acting on behalf of Council as the Chief Executive (CEO) of the Institute, the President provides leadership in the management of NIPR business through the chapters, committees and the national secretariat.

NIPR branch organization in States and the Federal Capital Territory (Abuja) are called Chapters. Each has an elected executive council led by a Chairman.

The National Secretariat with the Registrar and departmental heads appointed by Council constitute the administrative hub of the Institute.

OBJECTIVES

Build a credible and dynamic professional institution that is responsive to Nigeria's needs.

Promote professional excellence through members upholding the Code of Ethics and a system of life-long learning as well as gaining stakeholders' commitment to professional standards.

Encourage a more reputation-sensitive society, by working with appropriate associations to generate sustained focus on the contributions of stakeholders in different sectors.

THE MEANING OF MEMBERSHIP

Membership of the Institute represents a statement that the holder is a qualified professional practitioner in Public Relations, subscribes to the Code of Ethics and the Professional Standards Guide.

The Institute provides opportunities for lifelong learning to assist members grow professionally.

Also, it helps members to specialize in different areas of PR. Every member is expected to be active as a member of a chapter.

Members are required to serve in various workshops, committees and assignments as may be necessary.
